Congress Stakes Democratic Prestige On Personal Plea to Save Housing Plan

Purchase of Ferryboat Is Assured

Bridge Authority Official Says Deal Is About to Be Closed; Declines to Reveal Price

Slips Acquired

Unofficial Report Places Cost of Transport at Nearly $175,000

There is no question but that the ferryboat Richmond will be purchased for service between Kingston and Rhinecliff, declared W. K. Hagginbotham, executive secretary of the New York Bridge Authority, today. He also called attention to the fact that the purchase of the ferry slips on each side of the river, was now in the hands of the attorney general for search of title.

Hagginbotham declined to state the amount that will be paid for the ferry Richmond. The ferry is now operating between 125th street, New York city, and Edgewater, N. J.

The executive secretary said that the deal for the purchase was about ready to be closed. There were several minor details that had to be ironed out. He said that he planned to go to New York tomorrow when he intended to get in touch with the attorneys handling the sale of the ferryboat to the Bridge Authority, and ascertain how soon title can be taken.

Unofficially it has been stated that the price to be paid for the ferryboat is approximately $175,000.

In regard to the acquiring of the ferry slips of the Rhinebeck and Kingston Ferry Co., the matter was now in the hands of the attorney general, he said, for searching of title.

Appraisal has been made of the ferry slips and buildings, said Mr. Hagginbotham, who pointed out that they would be purchased by the state superintendent of public works. The price that will be paid for the ferry slips was not disclosed.

From what could be learned from other sources it is expected that ferry service will be inaugurated between Kingston and Rhinecliff as soon as the ice moves out of the river.

The Wicks-Hatfield bill that provides for the construction of the proposed bridge between this city and Rhinecliff is now in the state legislature.

Negotiations Break Up, Phone Strike Due for Nation March 7

Stoppage Will Be Called Thursday Morning at 6; 17 Unions Decide to Walk Out

New York, March 4 (AP)—Telephone employees who handle the nation's long distance calls will go on strike as scheduled Thursday with 16 other groups affiliated with the National Federation of Telephone Workers (Ind.), it was announced early today.

The announcement, made by John J. Moran, president of the Federation of Long Lines Telephone Workers (Ind.), which has 19,000 members, followed the breakdown at 2:30 a. m. (E.S.T.) of negotiations in a wage dispute between the union and the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

"The union's demands of 18 1/2 cents per hour, which have not been met up until now, and the company's offer of approximately 15 cents, leave us with but one alternative and that is to complete our arrangements for a strike," Moran said.

"We will strike at 6 a. m., Thursday, March 7."

George S. Dring, vice president of the A. T. & T. long lines department in charge of industrial relations and head of the company's negotiating committee said the company suggested a continuation of negotiations but that "so far no date has been arranged for another meeting."

Moran, asked if he intended to "go to Washington," replied: "Only if we are summoned. I do not see what purpose is to be gained unless the company has some better offer. He declined to comment on whether the union would accept appointment of a Continued on Page Ten

Better State Health Program Will Be Proposed by Dewey

Albany, N. Y., March 4 (AP)—Governor Dewey will recommend to the legislature tonight an expanded public health program calling for additional state aid of $7,000,000 to localities.

This program, to be outlined in a special message, will place stress on the war against tuberculosis, a disease Dewey hopes will be eradicated from the state in the next 20 years.

Ulster Park Site May Still Be Considered Says Local Chairman

Continued Local Effort Will Depend Upon Further Financial Outlay; Greenwich 'Unimportant', Says Dr. Gavrilovic; Decision in September

General Chairman George E. Yerry, Jr., of the local U. N. O. Committee when asked today if he considered that there was a possibility of the Ulster Park site being selected for the permanent United Nations home, stated there was still a chance that they started building somewhere else.

The question was asked the local chairman in view of the statement by Dr. Gavrilovic, chairman of the U. N. O. Site Selection Committee, that Greenwich was "unimportant" and "I think we can do very well without it."

The final decision as to the permanent location will be made at the next Assembly meeting in New York city in September.

It is believed that further effort upon the part of the local committee would depend upon an additional outlay. The original amount of $2,500 have been exceeded by $300. The amount in excess was for special work on the movie film and picture album, which were sent to the delegates in London. Due to the time limitation, no estimate was possible on this work. The local architect's fees are not included in the amount.

Gavrilovic Statement
New York, March 4 (AP)—The United Nations Organization, which is planning a new housing problem, was disclosed today as having decided not to create an "internationalized community" in establishing its permanent headquarters in the United States.

Dr. Stoyan Gavrilovic, chairman of the U. N. O. Site Selection Committee, said that ownership of the territory would remain American, with "certain privileges and immunities" for delegates such as those accorded diplomatic personnel in Washington. Jurisdiction over the area will be retained by local police and courts, he added.

Meanwhile, the citizens of Greenwich, Conn., embroiled in a civic dispute over whether to lay out the welcome mat for U. N. O., voted 5,505 to 2,019 in an opinion-sampling referendum Saturday to leave the doorstep bare and un-bidding. The town has 20,468 eligible voters.

Dr. Gavrilovic, who returned from London yesterday, said Greenwich was "unimportant" and "I think we can do very well without it." About one-third of the town was included in the originally proposed site of 42 square miles in Connecticut and New York.

However, Dr. Gavrilovic pointed out the U. N. O. General Assembly had enlarged the eligible territory to include all of Fairfield county, Conn., and Westchester county, N. Y., from which the ultimate selection of a "world capital" will be made.

Greenwich Referendum
The result of the Greenwich referendum, interpreted differently by the pros and the cons, stimulated both groups into fresh activity.

Wilkie S. Bushby, New York attorney and leader of the opposition Greenwich People's League, claimed it "clearly and unmistakably" showed the citizens believed U. N. O. should not destroy one community in order to build another on its ruins. He said the League had employed a firm of consulting engineers to help U. N. O. "toward a solution of the problem confronting them in finding a site."

Two Hurt in This Crash

Two women, Mrs. Ruth Locke, 25, of 317 Hasbrouck avenue, and Mrs. Lulu Locke, 62, of 66 Andrew street, were injured, when the truck in which they were riding was in collision with an auto driven by Frank Kouhout of 50 Hunter street. Both machines were damaged. Kouhout was arrested by the police on a charge of operating an automobile while intoxicated. The truck was owned by George Dawkins of 98 Foxhall avenue, and was being driven by Charles J. Locke of 317 Hasbrouck avenue. The crash occurred at 12:36 a. m. today. (Ken Roosa Photo)

G. M.-Union Parley Is Postponed Till Later

This Morning's Session Is Called Off at Request of U. A. W. Representatives; Corp. Turns Down Arbitration Proposal, Wants Idle to Vote

Detroit, March 4 (AP)—Negotiations between General Motors Corp. and the striking C.I.O. United Auto Workers were postponed this morning until later in the day, Special Mediator James F. Dewey announced.

Harry W. Anderson, G.M. vice president, said that when negotiations are resumed the corporation would be willing to talk about "anything the union wants to discuss."

Asked if the proposal for arbitration and the company's proposal for a secret vote among the strikers would be on the agenda, Anderson said "Yes, if they want to talk about it. We'll even talk about the weather if they want to."

This morning's session was set for 10:30 a. m. at which time the G.M. negotiators appeared. The union request for a delay was telephoned 15 minutes later, none of the U. A. W. representatives appearing for the session.

The corporation turned thumbs down on a union proposal to leave for an arbitrator the settlement of the longest and costliest strike in automotive history.

Suggests Idle Men Vote
Instead, the corporation suggested that the U. A. W.-C.I.O. let its 175,000 idle members vote in secret on whether they wish to accept an 18 1/2 cent hourly wage increase and return to work.

The union is demanding 19 1/2 cents as recommended by a presidential fact finding board.

Prior to the turnout of the arbitration plan, the union had warned that rejection by G.M. would force the U. A. W.-C.I.O. "to intensify strike action and to carry on until the strike is won."

Special Federal Mediator James F. Dewey, who has struggled vainly for several weeks to resolve the dispute, called both sides to another negotiating session (at 10:30 a. m.) today.

G.O.P. Calls For Bowles To Resign

Hannegan Leads Drive to Rally Democrats to Support of Truman Vet Housing Program

Forecast Holdup

Republicans Say That Red Tape Would Halt Construction

By FRANCIS M. LE MAY
Washington, March 4 (AP)—The Democratic party staked its congressional prestige today on a desperate bid to salvage the administration's imperiled housing program.

Simultaneously, Chester Bowles who marshaled his entire economic high command for a blistering week-end blast at price control setbacks on Capitol Hill ran into a Republican demand that he resign as stabilization boss.

Robert Hannegan, Democratic national chairman, assumed personal leadership of the eleven-hour campaign to save President Truman's "Homes for Veterans" Program by wiring each of the 239 Democrats in the House: "Your action today may advance or delay the solution to the nation's housing problem. Your presence and support of the administration's veterans housing program is imperative."

"Solid partisan Republican opposition to essential parts of this program, especially premium (subsidy) payments, threatens to torpedo the measure. The Democratic party will be held responsible by the country for failure to solve the housing crisis, not the Republicans. We cannot let this happen. * * * Am counting on you to go all out for administration housing program Monday afternoon."

The present House lineup includes the 239 Democrats, 191 Republicans and two minor party members.

Didn't Sway Voters
A quick check of some southern Democratic members who have joined with Republicans in opposing major sections of the administration housing program showed no indications that Hannegan's action had changed any votes.

The House by a two to one margin last Friday rejected Mr. Truman's request for price ceilings on existing dwellings.

In the hope of reforming their lines, Democratic leaders put off until today the final showdown on the legislation, including a request for $600,000,000 in subsidy funds designed to boost the output of scarce building materials without raising prices.

The militant opposition has contended the program as drawn would tie the building industry Continued on Page Ten

Three Prisoners Escape at Wallkill, 1 Caught Upstate

Highland, N. Y., March 4 (AP)—State Police announced today the escape from nearby Wallkill State Prison of three long-term prisoners, one of whom was recaptured a few hours later at Schenectady, N. Y., after he became involved in a hit-and-run automobile accident in which a taxicab driver was killed.

Corporal William Martin of the State Police identified the three escaped prisoners as Charles Bradley Langford, 22, of Schenectady, serving a 8-to-15 year term for robbery; Jan Mac Phie, 26, of Nassau county, serving 10 to 20 years for burglary, and John Penna, 27, of Richmond Hill, Queens, serving 3 1/2 to 10 years for burglary.

The State Police officer added that Morris surprised the men in the act of taking the car from his driveway and that two of the men then fled into a nearby woods while the third drove off.

Heart Attack Is Fatal Today to Joseph W. Kwasnik

Stricken as He Gets Off of City Broadway Bus; Was Under Care of Physician

Joseph W. Kwasnik, 41, of 46 Jarrold street, was stricken with a fatal heart attack at 10:08 o'clock this morning at Broadway and Foxhall avenue. Coroner Ernest A. Kelly who had been called, rendered the verdict of death due to a heart attack.

Coroner Kelly said that Mr. Kwasnik, who had been under treatment for a heart ailment for some time, had alighted from a Broadway bus at the street corner, and when he got onto the sidewalk he had suddenly collapsed.

Police headquarters received a telephone call and Officers Thomas McGrane and Robert Murphy responded in one of the radio cars. The Conner ambulance was called and the man removed to the Kingston Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Coroner Kelly directed that the body be turned over to Undertaker Henry J. Bruck.

Two Women Hurt, Kouhout Fined for Drunken Driving

Auto and Truck in Crash on B'way at 12:36 A.M. Lulu, Ruth Lock in Hospital

Two women were injured and Frank Kouhout, 38, of 50 Hunter street, was arrested by the police charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated, following a collision between a car driven by Kouhout, and a Dodge delivery truck, operated by Charles J. Locke of 317 Hasbrouck avenue, at 12:36 o'clock this morning on Broadway, near Pine Grove avenue.

Kouhout later in the morning pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $100 and his operator's license revoked by Judge Matthew V. Cahill. Kouhout paid the fine.

The women injured were Mrs. Lulu Locke, 62, of 66 Andrew street, who suffered lacerations to the scalp and ear and injuries to her back; and Mrs. Ruth Locke, 25, of 317 Hasbrouck avenue, who suffered a mild concussion, an injured right ankle and back injuries.

Both women were conveyed to the Kingston Hospital in the Conner ambulance. They were riding in the truck driven by Locke. The truck is owned by George Dawkins of 98 Foxhall avenue, according to the police.

Strikes at a Glance

(By The Associated Press)
Around 800,000 kept idle by labor disputes. Major developments:

Automobiles—C.I.O. United Auto Workers prepare to intensify strike against General Motors following rejection by G.M. of union arbitration offer; G.M. says only issue is whether company must pay bigger increase than competitors, suggests secret vote of union members on corporation's offer of 18 1/2 cents hourly raise; union officers, holding out for 19 1/2 cents, blast ballot proposal as "unwarranted interference with the affairs of a democratic union."

Telephones—Threat of nationwide telephone tieup at 6 a. m. Thursday continues unabated; American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and Federation of Long Lines Workers (Ind.) fail to agree in lengthy session, 16 other affiliates of the National Federation of Telephone Workers involved in threatened walkout for wage raises.

General Motors—G.M. went on to suggest: "One of your justifications for the strike has been that the employees voted for it in an N.L.R.B. election. Accordingly, in the event that, after further consideration, your delegates again reject our latest offer, we propose that the N.L.R.B., or some other independent agency conduct a secret vote among our employees to determine whether they wish to return to work under an agreement embodying our latest offers x x x."

The union, through statements by its top leaders, said G.M. did not "dare" to arbitrate and termed the proposal for the secret back-to-work ballot an "unwarranted interference in the affairs of a democratic union."

Better State Health Program Will Be Proposed by Dewey

Albany, N. Y., March 4 (AP)—Governor Dewey will recommend to the legislature tonight an expanded public health program calling for additional state aid of $7,000,000 to localities.

This program, to be outlined in a special message, will place stress on the war against tuberculosis, a disease Dewey hopes will be eradicated from the state in the next 20 years.

The $7,000,000 would supplement the $1,200,000 already appropriated in the 1946-47 budget for assistance to localities for public health work. The new sum would be distributed on a uniform basis. The state would reimburse a city or county 75 per cent of the first $100,000 it spent on public health and 50 per cent of any sum over $100,000.

In addition the state would pay one-half the cost of hospital treatment of every tuberculosis patient up to a maximum of $250 a day. Dewey's program provides for tuberculosis sanatorium service in each community, better utilization of existing sanatoriums and state help in building new ones, if needed. Chest examinations for a far greater number of people than now receive them also is contemplated.

Ulster Park Site May Still Be Considered Says Local Chairman

Continued Local Effort Will Depend Upon Further Financial Outlay; Greenwich 'Unimportant', Says Dr. Gavrilovic; Decision in September

General Chairman George E. Yerry, Jr., of the local U. N. O. Committee when asked today if he considered that there was a possibility of the Ulster Park site being selected for the permanent United Nations home, stated there was still a chance until they started building somewhere else.

The question was asked the local chairman in view of the statement by Dr. Gavrilovic, chairman of the U. N. O. Site Selection Committee, that Greenwich was "unimportant" and "I think we can do very well without it."

The final decision as to the permanent location will be made at the next Assembly meeting in New York city in September.

It is believed that further effort upon the part of the local committee would depend upon an additional outlay. The original amount of $2,500 have been exceeded by $200. The amount in excess was for special work on the movie film and picture album, which were sent to the delegates in London. Due to the time limitation, no estimate was possible on this work. The local architect's fees are not included in the amount.

Charges Officers And German Girls Living Together

Accusation of Immorality Made by Britisher in Letter to U. S. Army Newspaper

By RICHARD O'REGAN
Frankfurt, Germany, March 4 (AP)—A U. S. Army chaplain said today that the "prevalence" of immorality in Europe had been brought into the open by publication of a letter asserting that German girls are allowed to "live" with American officers at the U. S. Forces Headquarters Compound here.

The letter, written by a Britisher girl and published in the Army Newspaper Stars and Stripes said in part: "Why should German girls be allowed to live in the Compound with American officers? I know of several instances and if necessary would lead officers to men I consider to be rotten to the core."

"Maybe they have not lost anything in this war or suffered any hardship, and that is why they can forget that the Krauts they are with are part of the evil which caused so much suffering in this world."

Col. L. Curtis Tiernan of Kansas City, chaplain for the European Theatre, said the letter revealed the "prevalence of looseness and immorality and the general state of mind."

He was a son of the late John and Sophia Leptuch Kwasnik, and is survived by a sister, Mrs. Louis Kolano, and a brother, Anthony Kwasnik, both of this city.

Mr. Kwasnik was a member of the Immaculate Conception Church on Delaware avenue, and of the Holy Name Society of the church. Funeral services will be held from the home Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, and thence to the Immaculate Conception Church where at 9:30 o'clock a Mass of requiem will be offered, with burial in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

G.M.-Union Parley Is Postponed Till Later

This Morning's Session Is Called Off at Request of U.A.W. Representatives; Corp. Turns Down Arbitration Proposal, Wants Idle to Vote

Detroit, March 4 (AP)—Negotiations between General Motors Corp. and the striking C.I.O. United Auto Workers were postponed this morning until later in the day, Special mediator James F. Dewey announced.

Harry W. Anderson, G.M. vice president, said that when negotiations are resumed the corporation would be willing to talk about "anything the union wants to discuss."

Asked if the proposal for arbitration and the company's proposal for a secret vote among the strikers could be on the agenda, Anderson said "Yes, if they want to talk about it. We'll even talk about the weather if they want to."

This morning's session was set for 10:30 a. m. at which time the G.M. negotiators appeared. The union request for a delay was telephoned 15 minutes later, none of the U.A.W. representatives appearing for the session.

The corporation turned thumbs down on a union proposal to leave to an arbitrator the settlement of the longest and costliest strike in automotive history.

Instead, the corporation suggested that the U.A.W.-C.I.O. let its 175,000 idle members vote in secret on whether they wish to accept an 18 1/2 cent hourly wage increase and return to work.

The union is demanding 19 1/2 cents as recommended by a presidential fact finding board.

Prior to the turnout of the arbitration plan, the union had warned that rejection by G.M. would force the U.A.W.-C.I.O. "to intensify strike action and to carry on until the strike is won."

Special Federal Mediator James F. Dewey, who has struggled vainly for several weeks to resolve the dispute, called both sides to another negotiating session (at 10:30 a. m.) today.

In the face of the seemingly hopeless deadlock, Dewey said, it would "see where we go from here, and try to work something out."

The U.A.W.-C.I.O. had said Saturday that it was willing to send its members back into the nearly 100 struck G.M. plants under the corporation's 18 1/2 per cent wage increase offer if G.M. would submit that issue and others in the dispute to an arbitrator.

In a lengthy reply to this proposal the corporation said it would not arbitrate the wage issue, which it called the "only one."

"General Motors," offer, the statement read, "is within the wage policy of the country. It conforms to the wage pattern of the automotive industry."

Army Proposes To Rely More on Negroes in Future

Washington, March 4 (AP)—The army proposes henceforth to rely more than in the past on Negro troops but to use them in relatively small units.

Under a revised policy announced yesterday by the War Department the strength of Negro units will not exceed that of a regiment, or approximately 2,700 men.

Three Negro divisions of some 15,000 men each saw overseas service in World War 2—the 888th and 889th Central Postal Directory and the 888th Central Postal Directory—but all have been demobilized.

The explanation given for the new policy was "experiments and other experiences" in the war, in which a board of four generals headed by Lt. Gen. Alvan C. Gillem advised that there were "reported failures in combat."

The report concluded however that "the participation of the Negro in World War 2 was in many instances creditable."

To Discuss Makeup Of U. S. Contingent In U.N.O. Defenses

Washington, March 4 (AP)—The number of men, ships and planes this country may be willing to contribute to U.N.O.'s international police force is expected to be decided tentatively within the next two weeks.

Present indications are that the emphasis will be on warships and aircraft, rather than on troops.

The question is in the hands of the joint chiefs of staff, this group of top military leaders is due to come up with some kind of an answer before the March 21 meeting in New York of the Military Staff Committee of U.N.O.'s Security Council.

Composed of representatives of the Big Five—the United States, Great Britain, Russia, France and China—the Military Staff Committee will be faced at the outset with the problem of determining the size and makeup of the force with which the United Nations will undertake to "maintain or restore international peace and security."

Persons close to the American members of the committee said they have not yet received any instructions from the joint chiefs of staff but that they expect some word in advance of the New York meeting.

Stress Air-Navy
These persons, who declined to be identified by name, noted that at the recent U.N.O. session in London the military staff members held mere organization meetings, leaving the real problem of the peace enforcement forces for the New York gathering.

Belief that the American contribution probably will be largely in naval and air power, with a relatively small number of troops, was termed a "logical assumption" in view of this country's strength in those arms and the Army's current manpower difficulties.

Any American offer must, however, be tentative because the whole issue of security forces is subject to Congressional approval after the form of the police organization is completed.

American representatives on the Military Staff Committee are Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway for the Army, Lt. Gen. George C. Kenney for the Air Forces and Adm. Richmond K. Turner of the Navy.

Iran Demands Censure Of Russians by U.N.O.

Tehran, March 4 (AP)—The Iranian government was confronted today with a parliamentary leader's demand that it file with the United Nations Security Council charges that Russia had violated an agreement with Britain and the United States under which the three were to withdraw from Iran by March 2.

Dr. Mohamed Mossadegh, parliamentary whip, told the Chamber of Deputies yesterday that the Russians had not begun to evacuate their troops from Semnam, Mezhed and Sharud as promised and expressed his belief that the Russians "intend to remain in our country."

The Russians said last Friday that evacuation of these areas would begin Saturday.

Declaring that the Russians "have openly broken their word and abrogated the treaty with the United States and Great Britain," Mossadegh said:

"They want to stay here for good, but Iran will protest to the signatories of the tri-partite pact, and the government must notify the Security Council of the United Nations."

Cardinal Spellman Goes Sightseeing in Lisbon

Lisbon, March 4 (AP)—Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York went sightseeing with his party in Lisbon and nearby Sintra today, delaying their scheduled departure for the United States until this afternoon.

The group had planned to take off this morning, but their departure was postponed "at the request of the Portuguese government" to enable the Cardinal to make a brief tour of the two cities.

U. S. Ambassador Herman Baruch entertained the Cardinal and his party at a luncheon.

The group took off yesterday from Rome in the Constellation plane "Star of Vatican City," and arrived here last night after a brief stop in Madrid. The Cardinal blessed the plane at a ceremony before his departure.

The three other new United States cardinals—Samuel Stritch of Chicago, John J. Glennon of St. Louis and Edward Meneilly of Detroit—left Rome by plane this morning en route home by way of Eire.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN (For Hal Boyle)

Hamburg, Germany (AP)—Adolf Hitler's half-brother, Alois, unable to resume business at his old Berlin winery, frankly admits that he has "had enough of the name Hitler."

Rheumatic, 64-year-old Alois, who changed his name from Hitler to Hiller in the Hamburg courts three months ago—said in an interview he wanted only to go back to his Berlin shop, but added:

"I'm told I can't get my place back. A Jew and a concentration camp victim are living there."

Bearing a resemblance to the Fuehrer in both stature and profile, the brush-moustached, bespectacled Alois professed a profound dislike for Adolf. He said his dislike "stemmed from childhood, when Adolf, pampered by Alois' stepmother, was allowed to take out his outbursts of rage on his half-brother."

"I've had enough of the name Hitler—the fact that my father was also Adolf's father should not be held against me," he said, hanging in demonstrative Hitler style on the table with his fist.

Not Schickelgruber

He said Der Fuehrer's real name was Hitler and not Schickelgruber. He frankly explained in English learned while waiting on tables seven years in London restaurants.

"Our father was an Austrian customs officer. He married my mother after I was born. Under the existing law, I took my mother's name, Schickelgruber, until her marriage, then took my father's name of Hitler."

Alois said his mother died two years later, and his 42-year-old father then obtained special legal permission to wed his cousin, who was 17 years younger. He said they had three children, all of whom died. The fourth and last child was Adolf, born at Braunau on the Bavarian-Austrian border, where his father was stationed as a customs official.

"I was just like the fifth wheel of an auto," Alois recalled. "My stepmother ignored me and babied Adolf, who was headstrong, temperamental and even at that age had explosions of rage."

Was Hot-Tempered Child
"I never forgot when he was five. He received some stone building blocks for Christmas and couldn't figure them out. I was 12 then, and I tried to show him how to build a house. But he began crying and, in a fit of temper, threw the blocks at my face. He was coddled until he quit crying, and I was bawled out for butting in."

Apparently fed up, Alois decided to leave home at the age of 14 and became a busboy in Linz, embark-

Sergeant Swoons When Acquitted On Spy Charges

Sacramento, Calif., March 4 (AP)—Sgt. Frank Hirt, acquitted Saturday night by an Army court martial of charges he conspired to spy for Germany during the war, was at home today for the first time since his arrest and was getting acquainted with his nine-month-old son.

The son, Franklin Denis, was born while Hirt was in the guardhouse, and the father had never seen him until yesterday. Hirt and his wife, Jean, also have a daughter, Sharon, 3.

An 11-officer court martial acquitted the Air Force soldier after a dramatic 11-day trial at Hamilton Field, north of San Francisco. Hirt embraced his 22-year-old wife, saying repeatedly, "Honey, I made it," and then fainted.

He was immediately granted a furlough, and he announced that after he gets an honorable discharge, on points, he expects to re-enlist in the Army.

Born in this country, Hirt lived many years with grandparents in Germany, and the prosecution contended he received Nazi plans and money for an espionage mission to the United States shortly before Pearl Harbor. Hirt admitted he received money and instructions for espionage but said he did it only to escape the Reich. He joined the Army in 1942.

BOBBY SOXERS

"Teen age is meant for excitement. At least that's the story told. I vaguely recall having lived through it all while squandering youth and its gold.

"I'm here, the jeans and the juke-box. I'm here, the double-breasted suit. I'm here, the car that solicits a smile. I'm here, the youth hasn't changed very much. I'm here, the years off your care to add the years to your hair. I'm here, the pattern of joy for a girl or a boy. You'll find it, by just shifting the scene.

Faye Emerson Gives Up Her Career in Movies

Hollywood, March 4 (AP)—Movie actress Faye Emerson has given up her professional career to devote all her time to being Mrs. Elliott Roosevelt.

She came to Hollywood late last week from Hyde Park, N. Y., canceled her contract with Warner Brothers, and returned east to be with her husband, the second son of the late President.

Warners said Mrs. Roosevelt felt that the best way to make a success of her marriage was to quit the movies, since they would keep her away from Hyde Park, where her husband is living in the ancestral home.

Don't Let Soap Shortages Get Worse
Keep saving used fats!

KNOW WHY SOAP'S SO SCARCE? It's because our country is so short of fats needed to make the soaps you want (and to make other peacetime goods, too). Yes! Even though food fats are more plentiful now, our supply of industrial fats is still critically low. But you can help put more soap back in the stores sooner . . . by saving used fats! Keep turning them in just as you did during the war. (You'll get 4¢ for every pound.)

Where there's fat there's soap!

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

A Sour Burglary
Tulsa, Okla., March 4 (AP)—A burglary of a food market here had a sour ending.

Police were called to the market in answer to an alarm. They found the intruder had opened a skylight, stepped onto a false ceiling which gave way and he dropped into a 60-gallon barrel of dill pickles.

Honesty
Twin Falls, Ida., March 4 (AP)—"Here's the money for the haircut and here's $3 to cover the bum check I gave you."

Somewhat taken back, barber Charles Russell told the customer he didn't remember cashing a bad check.

"It was about ten years ago," said the customer. "You had a shop over on Main street then."

Russell remembered, smiled and accepted the money.

Ready to Travel
Rome, N. Y., March 4 (AP)—People who deposit out-of-town bus tokens in fare boxes here are contributing to the collection of Henry G. Lavanway, manager of the Rome City Bus Line, Inc.

His collection includes tokens from Washington, D. C., San Antonio, Tex., Honolulu, Indianapolis, Seattle, Norfolk, Va., Tulsa, Okla., and Canada.

A Car for Carrs
Centerville, Ill., March 4 (AP)—Getting a new car for the Carrs cost Mrs. Oliver Carr a night long vigil.

An automobile agency advertised it would accept orders for new models — first come first served.

Bringing a chair and blankets for protection against near-freezing weather, Mrs. Carr took up her post outside the auto sales room at 7 p. m., beating ex-Marine Donald Kelly by 11 minutes. Soon more company arrived and by 5 a. m., 15 persons were waiting.

The Carrs' new car will be delivered later this month, the agency said.

Buses for Houses
Chicago, March 4 (AP)—Three hundred outmoded street cars have been released by the Chicago Surface Lines for sale as housing.

Costing $300 each, they will have electric heating units, but the new owners must be people who are willing to settle down. The wheels will be taken off.

Employment Increase Recorded in January

Albany, N. Y., March 4 (AP)—January employment in the state's building industry was 43 per cent higher than in the same month in 1945, the State Labor Department reported today.

The January seasonal employment decline in the industry was 2 per cent, smallest ever recorded by the department. Industrial Commissioner Edward Corsi said.

Payrolls were 4 per cent above those of December, 1945. Man-hours increased 1 per cent. Average weekly earnings were $55.50, a gain of $3.12 over the previous month.

Decreases in employment were noted in Albany, Binghamton, Buffalo and Utica. New York city, Rochester and Syracuse reported a rise in the number of workers.

Missouri Awaits Churchill Speech

Ex-Prime Minister Slated for Momentous Talk on World Affairs

Fulton, Mo., March 4 (AP)—Fulton took on life and color today as the last of the red, white and blue bunting went up in honor of Winston Churchill and President Truman.

Everything was set for their arrival early tomorrow afternoon. The Westminster campus was shining. The hot dog stands were up. Special communications facilities were ready to transmit up to 1,500 words a minute by wire.

Dr. Francis McClure, Westminster president, estimated about 4,000 visitors already had arrived. How many will crowd in this little town of 8,200 tomorrow, no one can say.

For the 225 students at Westminster, today was a holiday. They will have special seats in the college gymnasium tomorrow to hear the former British prime minister discuss world problems.

Some of the first comers behaved like typical souvenir hunters. They pilfered two telephones and microphones from the gymnasium where Churchill will speak.

Down town, where 500 state guardsmen, policemen borrowed from nearby towns and a troop of highway patrolmen will direct traffic, a battle-type loud-speaker has been erected on the courthouse.

Three More Japs Go On Trial for Atrocities

Yokohama, March 4 (AP)—Three Japanese go on trial tomorrow on charges of committing and permitting atrocities at a branch of the Omine Prison Camp on Onshu Island. It will be the second common trial of suspected war criminals in Nippon.

They are Nobuo Kanayama and former Camp Commandants Osuyoshi Saki and Kiyochi Mori.

The trio will be defended by Capt. William T. Martin, Jr., 372 West Mount Airy avenue, Philadelphia. Lt. Andrew R. Stevenson of White Plains, N. Y., will head the prosecution.

France, Britain to Take Troops Out of Syria

Paris, March 4 (AP)—The French foreign office announced today that France and Britain have agreed to withdraw their troops from Syria by April 30.

Joint withdrawal of the troops will begin March 11, the announcement said.

It added that a French-British military commission which negotiated the agreement is now studying plans for the evacuation of Lebanon.

Kingston Hospital Volunteer Service

Appreciation Is Expressed for Volunteer Workers

Through the war years, when every person was moved to do as much as possible to achieve victory, the hospitals benefited by the volunteer work done by many individuals and groups who, in this way, helped to fill the gap caused by the nurses leaving for military service.

Kingston women were no exception. They gave much time to the hospitals as well as to other emergency activities.

In the Kingston Hospital two groups carry on their volunteer work throughout the year—the Louise Wilkinson Shufeldt Memorial Good Cheer Committee of the Hospital Auxiliary and the Junior League Book and Magazine Service.

These volunteers do an effective job in a faithful and unobtrusive manner.

At present several members of the Tri-Hi girls Y.W.C.A. are giving their time after school hours, wherever needed.

Other groups who have given service include the B'nai B'rith Girls, the Red Cross canten aides and the Nurses Aides.

Special mention should be given to the following Nurses Aides, Mrs. Adrian Kaplan with 620 hours of service, Mrs. Harry Gold with 409 hours, Mrs. Robert Huder, 394 hours, Mrs. H. C. Scarpati, 375 hours and Mrs. S. L. Razy, 335 hours—while many others also have the satisfaction of having given hundreds of hours in self-sacrificing service. They are among the unstung heroines of the war.

Three members of the Hospital Auxiliary reported regularly for duty, over an extended period, the Mesdames H. L. Bibby, Harold Loughran and C. E. Wonderly.

This is a tremendous contribution when seen in the aggregate, and the hospital appreciates deeply the assistance given by each individual, and that which is still being given. The need for assistance is yet present.

If there are those who could spare some time for hospital work, it is urged that an effort be made to do it now.

Vets Purchasing 75% of Surplus Motor Vehicles

That veterans of World War 2 are receiving a high percentage of surplus motor vehicles being sold throughout the nation by War Assets Corporation, in some cases as high as 75 per cent of the total, vehicles sold, is indicated in the latest reports of sales, according to an announcement today by Col. Frank F. Seymour, Associate Regional Director in this area.

During the first two weeks of 1946, from January 1st to 15th inclusive, veterans bought 1,341 trucks as against dealers' purchases of 2,212, despite the fact that a large proportion of trucks sold were types requiring alterations for peace-time hauling. During the same period, U. S. Government agencies bought 477 and State and Local Governments 118 of the surplus vehicles.

Col. Seymour pointed out that, under the law, the U. S. Government has top priority and State and Local Governments second claim on all surplus vehicles.

Third, priority goes to the veterans.

JEEP IN NEW FIELD

That war baby, the American jeep, has found new worlds to conquer in ice-locked Spitzber-gen, high under the North Pole, Oslo reports. Taken to that Arctic outpost during the war, the jeep proved so well-suited to the rugged terrain that a coal company has brought several of the little gadabouts for use in reconstruction of mines and facilities on the island. They will transport supplies from wharves to inland mines and storehouses.

ALASKA CALLING

Alaska is a land only for the hardy and the handy. So says Jack McCord, Iowa native, who has spent 40 years in the territory as a scout, surveyor and cattleman. Friend of Rex Beach and Jack London who made the north-west corner famous with their Alaskan romances, McCord is back in the states for a conference in Washington on the Alaskan statehood issue, up for voting next fall, for which he thinks Alaska is not ready. A good many war veterans are looking toward settlement in Alaska, which McCord thinks is all right if they realize it is a place for the pioneer type where people must do everything for themselves, even to building their own homes.

Alaska is one-fifth the size of the United States, had 40,000 whites and less than that many Indians before the war. Only 120 days a year are possible for industrial occupations, because of the long winter. Alaska needs settlers, and has a future for them. McCord would settle the newcomers in groups of 10 to 15 families along the great Alcan highway. Here they could farm, trap or prospect for gold, and in summer accommodate tourists.

A great deal will be heard about Alaska in the near future. A new magazine is being printed in Seattle called "Alaska Life." Settlers and tourists in numbers are expected in this land, the last of America's frontiers.

The Census Bureau estimates the population of the United States at 139,000,000. This must be an error. Most of us are personally acquainted with more than that number of people who are looking for houses.

EUROPEAN TRAINS

The through European trains are beginning to run again. Announcement is made of the resumption of the Golden Arrow, between Paris and Calais on the English Channel, the luxury train for travelers between England and France. In Paris it connects with the Simplon-Orient Express, which goes via the Simplon pass in Switzerland to Rome and Venice. Venice is not especially Oriental, but before the war trains ran from Western Europe to the Balkans and Constantinople. Trains ran to Constantinople from both Berlin and Paris.

Now few trains of any sort are running in Germany, certainly none for luxurious travelers who want to reach the East. But the resumption of the Golden Arrow is an encouraging, if modest, sign that Europe is beginning to come back.

Considering how much there is of the English language, we might find a better definition of these youngsters than "teen agers."

SMALL BUT IMPORTANT

Probably the most important thing in this country just now is to get so-called "small business" going again. That is, manufacturing and distributing operations that may average, say, a turn-over of no more than $100,000 a year.

The power and spread of such plants is astonishing. Robert R. Wason, president of the National Manufacturers' Association, says that 92 per cent of the business establishments in this country may be classified as "small businesses" and their total output amount to one-third of all business.

Most of the larger establishments, anyway, seem to be composed of a lot of smaller establishments woven together. Viewed in this light, the latter make a very respectable showing in any summary of national production.

The first duty of a President or any other administrator is to pick good men for the job.

BOSTON LOSING

Boston has lost 51,327 persons in the last ten years, according to the Massachusetts State Planning Board. The population is thought to have moved to the suburbs, and not to those near by either, as next-door Cambridge has lost 6,931 and Chelsea 2,211.

Boston's experience must be unusual. Most cities have gained during the war through

PICKING A LOSER

One of the major New Deal political methods since 1940 has been to pick the Republican candidate for President. They never put on a campaign for anyone quite so equal that which suddenly made Wendell Willkie an international figure of primary importance.

If you go back to the columnists and commentators of 1939 and 1940, you will find that all the New Dealers, before the convention, first favored and then opposed Tom Dewey, supported Wendell Willkie, viciously attacked Robert A. Taft. Of course, after Mr. Willkie was nominated, these New Dealers went right back to where they started, supporting Franklin D. Roosevelt and opposing Willkie. They were for him for nomination; against him for election.

In 1941, they uniformly favored Tom Dewey. They violently opposed John W. Bricker. They were again picking the Republican candidate for the Republican party. After Tom Dewey was nominated, these same columnists and commentators hit Dewey with the whole book.

They are at it again. These columnists and commentators who did not vote Republican in 1932, 1936, 1940 or 1944, are busy picking the Republican candidate. Their man now is Harold Stassen. They are opposed to John W. Bricker, Arthur Vandenberg, Robert A. Taft, Tom Dewey. But they favor Harold Stassen. And they say that if they cannot get Stassen, they will take Henry Cabot Lodge.

The only difference is that the Republicans are finally on to them. I recently saw a list of columnists and commentators that Republicans follow like a score card. Every time these New Dealers speak well of a Republican, his party members make a mark against him on the score card. They are watching these Trojan horses closely. As a matter of straight politics, these New Dealers have just about killed off Harold Stassen, who, in spite of all that he does to make himself a second Willkie, is getting nowhere within his own party.

As of today, despite policies who seem to keep away from anyone who will vote in the convention, the New Deal columnists, John W. Bricker is the most popular of the prospective candidates. As a matter of procedure, however, the voters in New York and Ohio will settle this question. Tom Dewey must carry New York in 1946 when he runs for governor and John Bricker must carry Ohio in the same year when he will run for United States senator. If both are elected, they will be the outstanding contenders. Whoever is defeated is out.

The big battle in 1946 will, however, be for the Congress. The Republicans expect to carry the House of Representatives and to improve their situation in the Senate. Their most strident opposition will come from the C.I.O.-P.A.C. Already the "New Republic" has issued the P.A.C. guidebook. This is a special supplement of that paper which tells the P.A.C. boys whom to oppose in every district of every state. They apparently dislike almost as many Democrats as Republicans, which is characteristic of liberals. Vito Marcantonio, of New York, who is positively Left-Wing, gets a perfect good mark, but Clare Hoffman, of Michigan, gets a perfect bad mark. It is all done by pluses and minuses and seems so scholarly. My guess is that it will have no effect on the actual vote.

Few senators get a perfect mark from the "New Republic." The only ones I note are Green of Rhode Island, Murdock of Utah, Tunnell of Delaware, and Mitchell of Washington. Maybe some others might have been beatified by the "New Republic" but they were not around all the time.

Republicans know that senators and representatives are elected locally—often on their personalities and nearly always on local issues and situations. Their problem is more to keep the National Committee an all-year functioning agency after its chairman, Herbert Brownell, quits at the end of this month. Brownell has done a remarkably good job of organization but he cannot afford to continue without pay and he will not take a salary for political work. There is a fear that prospective candidates jockeying for the job for their adherents, may do mischief; therefore, undercover negotiations are afoot to keep the organization out of the chairmanship situation altogether.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

A CAUSE OF STAMMERING

I often write about stammering because this "nervous habit," for this is what it really is, can now be cured by attending schools of speech correction and practicing "home work" between times. These schools of speech correction have formed an association and high educational standards for membership in the association are required of all instructors.

As stated before there is nothing wrong with the speech apparatus of stammerers (tongue, throat, nose, with its sounding boxes, the sinuses, vocal chords); that is in the great majority of cases, stammering is due to self-consciousness, which is really a form of nervousness. That the speech apparatus is not at fault is shown by the fact that when the stammerer is alone or at home with members of the family or friends, and he is not self-conscious, he talks freely without stammering.

However, there is one point that does not seem to be known by stammerers and their families and that is where there is some loss of hearing especially during the years when the child is learning to talk, some hesitancy in talking develops and stammering occurs. Unfortunately the greatest amount of loss of hearing is due to diseases of childhood which occur during the first seven or eight years of life.

A few years ago I quoted Drs. M. Arlene Harris and J. Y. Malone, Milwaukee, in Annals of Otolaryngology and Rhinology (ear, nose, and throat) who stated that it is at this time that great good can be accomplished in improving the hearing and correcting the stammering. They believe that the hearing ability of all school children should be tested at the end of their first year at school and that hearing tests are as important as testing eyesight. In sixty-two consecutive cases of stammerers who did not know they had any loss of hearing, the loss of hearing was from 10 to 22 per cent.

Parents and teachers should keep this point, loss of hearing and stammering, in mind.

About Time for His Lesson

—Close Ups—

By UPTON CLOSE

WHY DOES TRUMAN STICK TO PAULEY?

The question puzzles many people. Harry Truman has a large bump of personal loyalty to those who have helped him, but it is not any larger than his bump of practical political sense, as he understands it. Until his ascension to the presidency Harry's favorite saying was "The only definition I know of a statesman is a dead politician, and I would rather be a live politician than a statesman."

The business of remaining a live politician implies nimbleness in getting away from associates who become political liabilities, and Pauley is certainly that regardless of whether Democratic committee stomachs him or not.

Truman may feel that he can be as loyal to old man and campaign fund collector, Pauley, as he can to a campaigner. He may not realize how unparallel are the two cases. Pauley, like his counterpart Arthur Curley of Boston always retained a regional prestige. National reactions are much touchier.

Some say Truman is obeying Hannegan, and Hannegan is a sick man. Hannegan has always been tenacious rather than discreet, and his illness has turned his tenacity into stubborn sullessness. There is another angle. Truman has become alarmed about the "Red" influence in his official family. He has become very uncertain about James Byrnes. A natural jealousy of Byrnes due to the fact that Byrnes wanted the nomination for the Vice-Presidency before Harry Truman ever seriously thought of it for himself is enhanced by Byrnes' undisguised desire to be Democratic presidential nominee in 1948. An unpleasant thing is given the situation by the fact that so long as Congress does not change the law of succession, Byrnes would become president should anything incapacitate Truman.

As the president has an increasing amount of trouble with the men who have honeycombed the administration under the sponsorship of Eleanor Roosevelt, and whose heart is with Moscow rather than with their own nation, it is natural for Truman to expect that Byrnes plays up to the Moscow lovers for a political purpose. Truman must recognize that Ed Pauley proved in plate passer parlance in the campaign, but excellence in the campaign, but the White House is that he has been the highest paid and most effective anti-Red influence in high administration circles since Truman became president.

Something that should be brought to the attention of Congress and the public, but of course will not be by State Department propagandists, is that the Administration has never published Pauley's reparations report on Europe, nor has it been officially submitted to Congress. On the other hand, the Pauley report on Japanese reparations has been submitted and has received general approval, although Pauley's mission to Japan followed his European mission. Revelation of the details of the European mission would show Pauley's reversal of the policy of Isidor Lubin and the manner in which it was accomplished. Pauley wanted President Truman to replace the Lubin clause on the reparations commission. When this seemed impossible without political repercussions which Truman was unwilling to sustain, Pauley increased the commission to an absurd number of members, some nineteen or so, and he sought to entice the Lubin clause by the offer of a million dollars to the surface to be to the United States in Germany into Stalin's hands. This move, however, was purely and simply to follow the Morgenthau policy of vindictiveness. The easiest way to destroy German industry was to give it to Russia. There was actually more hate of Germany than love of Russia in Lubin's method. To some extent Pauley put a stop to this—but how effectively we cannot know so long as the report remains unrevealed. Probably the military seizure by Russian troops of Standard Oil properties in Hungary was typical Moscow retaliation for Pauley's policy of taking the Lubin candy away from the Bear.

In any case, Truman's fidelity to Pauley is more than political bedfellowship. Truman craves protection against the Red persuasion of his own official family, and the lack of character of Byrnes is particular.

Ed Pauley, on his part, has been pushed to the place where he has nothing to lose. The Democratic majority on the Senate Committee just might approve him. If not, he has lost everything.

But the Democratic party will lose most if he not only hangs on, but becomes part of the Administration. (Copyright 1946 by John F. Dille Co.)

Augustus H. Van Buren, veteran member of the Ulster County Bar was appointed to serve as special city judge of Kingston by Mayor Morris Block, who filed the appointment with City Clerk A. A. Styles on February 5, 1926.

Judge Van Buren was named to succeed Special City Judge Thomas F. Coughlin, whose term had expired. The new judge for years was one of the leaders of the Ulster County Bar. He was also a historian of note, and was the author of a book on Ulster county history, as well as a number of historical sketches, based on the early history of Kingston.

The mayor on February 1, of that year, also appointed Dr. W. H. Connelly, a well known physician, as a member of the police board, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William C. Shafer, who was widely known in local banking circles.

Dr. Connelly during the administration of Mayor Morris Block, was mayor was active in the affairs of the Republican party, and had served the city both as alderman and as president of the Common Council.

Miss Jessie Allan, now superintendent of the Kingston Hospital, on February 1, 1926, assumed her duties as director of nurses at the hospital, succeeding Miss Martha Morningstar, who had resigned to accept a position in St. Luke's Hospital in Newburgh.

Miss Allan served very acceptably as head of the nurses at the hospital, and for a number of years she has been successfully serving as superintendent of the hospital.

Harold L. Sanford and Joseph M. Hallinan were appointed members of the paid fire department of the city at a meeting of the fire board on January 26, 1926, and assumed their duties on February 1, of that year.

William R. Harrison, president of W. R. Harrison & Co., well known wholesale grocers with plant on Field Court, died on January 4, 1926, in the Kingston Hospital of injuries suffered when he was struck by an automobile. He was 61 years old.

He was born in Newburgh in 1865, and in 1898 he came to Kingston and with Frank B. Matthews organized the wholesale grocery firm of Matthews & Harrison on Railroad avenue. He severed his connection with the firm in 1916, when he sold his holdings to Deaneley N. Matthews.

The firm name was changed to F. R. Matthews & Co., Inc. Some time later Mr. Harrison, with Leon Blankfield organized the firm of W. R. Harrison & Co., and erected a modern plant on Field Court.

Fraternally Mr. Harrison was a Mason and a member of Kingston Lodge, No. 10. He was also active in St. James Methodist Church, and a member of the official board of the church.

During the administration of Mayor A. Wesley Thompson he was appointed a member of the police board. In later years he served as a member of the water board.

Two Cars Damaged

In Highland Collision

Cars driven by Dominick Constantino, 28, of Highland and Joseph DeMarco, 22, of 154 Main street, Newburgh, were each badly damaged when they collided on 9-W about a quarter of a mile south of the Highland traffic circle at 8 o'clock Friday night.

State Police from Highland reported that Constantino was driving south when he entered the DeMarco car approaching and skidding. He pulled to his left, and a collision, with the two cars side-swiped. The top condition of the road was clear as the cause of the accident. No personal injuries.

Today in Washington

"Truman Depression" Due in Next 18 Months Unless There Is Better Leadership in Washington

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, March 4.—Thirty years have elapsed since the late President Roosevelt was inaugurated in the midst of an economic crisis that had forced the closing of the banks of the nation. The American people responded to the drastic steps and cooperated with the government in the hope that firm leadership could bring order out of chaos.

Today an economic crisis not so acute in its appearance but equally severe is in the making. There is no vigorous leadership—in fact, there are major groups demanding that the economic warfare be permitted to go to the point of exhaustion while the rival interests pursue their bitter conflict.

Block Reconversion
Strikes and work stoppages are blocking reconversion and reconstruction. Quarrels over wages have prevented the national income from achieving the levels that had been expected. Instead of a boom as predicted, the nation is slowly drifting into a serious depression.

Already it seems certain the first-quarter statements of earnings will show a sharp drop and that losses compared to the expected gains will be widespread. It is evident that the anticipated wage increases have already been wiped out by the prolonged work stoppages. Purchasing power is being diminished and the temper of the people is one of widespread dissatisfaction with the failure of economic groups or the government to provide the necessary leadership to swing the country to a rate of production which it was reasonable to expect this year.

It is easy to blame the labor unions and their leaders and even easier to blame the management for failing to surrender their profits—it depends on which point of view one adopts. The truth is the unions faced a critical situation in the decrease of take-home pay for their members and the management faced uncertainties as to the demand they would have and prices they could charge.

Proper Steering Needed
Under such circumstances, when the economic ship seeks to operate without a rudder, someone must supply the steering apparatus. Since labor will not permit management to do the steering or vice versa, the public interest requires that the government do it.

Small businesses are suffering from the unscientific and unwisely way wages are being forced. Instead of developing a system wherein each industry can work out levels that will take care of the weaker competitors, the rule is to impose wages which only the rich and powerful companies can pay. The government wage and price policy hurts small businesses.

Careless Administration
Thus the monopolies, or at least those with the largest amount of volume of dollars or production on their books, come out better while the smaller competing ones face a serious decision. Some may be forced out of business altogether. This is no leadership but careless administration.

President Truman knows he is being widely criticized. But his trouble is that he does not have a set of advisers who know enough about the operations of an economic system. It is all well to theorize, but the facts of business life often upset many a well-conceived theory. This is because the laws of trade and merchandise are affected by price-fixing and government can only adjust the inequities of the private system by recognizing that it is also forcing increases in costs through blanket wage increases.

If it is intended to discourage risk capital and decide arbitrarily what profits shall be earned, incentives to expansion will not emerge. Instead, just as soon as pent-up demands for goods and short are met, the few months boom that must inevitably follow the present recession will collapse and the real depression will come sooner than expected.

The Republicans were charged with the "Hoover Depression of 1929-1933" but unless there is a better leadership in Washington, there will be a "Truman Depression" in the next 18 months which it will not be possible for the Democrats to blame on their Republican opponents. The executive and legislative branches of the government are Democrats and the people at the polls next November will have their first opportunity to express their disapproval on the failure of the Washington government to act vigorously in relation to strikes and work stoppages. War-Smashed Germany Physically "Kaput"

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Frankfurt, Germany, March 2 (AP)—The devastation wrought by the war in Germany's cities is so terrific that you have to pick your way carefully among the ruins lest your view of more important things be cut off, and so this looks like a good point to check up on the outstanding points of our tour in the occupied zones of the defeated Reich.

I suppose we should start with the observation that Germany is so badly smashed that she would be physically incapable of making war again for many years even if we were allowed to go her own way unhampered. The German has an expressive word for anything which is smashed and that is "kaput." Well, Germany is kaput physically and no mistake about that.

Grave Danger
However, the very fact that the Reich is kaput creates a grave danger for the United Nations. This is that the Allies may be lulled into a feeling of false security and relax their avowed determination to sit on the lid in Germany until it is clear that its people have been reformed.

Germany is militarily impotent. The experts say it will take thirty years to clear away the rubble of the destroyed cities, to say nothing of trying to rebuild. But there is small doubt that while the Germans are beaten physically they are not beaten mentally, and that their transformation into a peace-minded people will involve a very long period of re-education and military occupation.

Vital Point
There is another equally vital point. The peace of Europe does not necessarily depend on German mentality. Germany is strategically the heart of the continent. Should the Reich become the battleground to determine the balance of power in Europe—which Heaven forbid—we should have a situation which might easily produce another upheaval.

This danger is emphasized by a spirit of uncertainty in the American zone—a feeling that the United States public is weakening in its determination to occupy Germany militarily until time has established peace in Europe. That's a frightening thought.

The wholesale readjustment of the balance of power as Europe has cast Uncle Sam in the role of friendly mediator between Russia and Britain. Should American public opinion result in our abandonment of the original plan of occupation in Germany, it would create a vacuum in the Reich that would necessarily be filled by another power and that would produce a whirlwind.

Things Improving
As to the general situation in Germany, things are improving. There are three main bottlenecks in the rehabilitation program—food, coal and transport. Encouraging progress is being made in the case of the latter two although conditions still are ap-

Better Bowling

FIT ALL HANDS: Boring bowling balls to meet the measurement or condition of all hands has become an art today. No longer need any person sit on the sidelines or avoid the sport because he "can't get a ball that fits."

Baseball players with fingers buckled and bent used to find it particularly difficult to bowl with the old-fashioned, standard-bore ball. Many simply had to forget about bowling entirely because they just couldn't hold the ball long enough to get it to the foul line.

Margaretville by 52-46 on Saturday

Coach Lou Schafer's Y.M.C.A. basketball teams won a double-header over the week-end when the varsity five fought to a 42-46 victory over the Margaretville American Legion and the juniors did it in a walk against Arkville, 84-49.

Buddy Smith, Jack Kelse and Al Thomas sparked the varsity quintet in their triumph. Smith found the hoop for 17 markers while Kelse and Thomas dumped in 14 and 11 respectively. Maxson had 11 for the losers.

The "Y" varsity quintet travels to Roxbury tonight for another tough engagement.

Dougherty, McElrath and Perry were high for the jayvees with Dougherty leading the pack with 21 points. The jayvees took a 38-22 lead at halftime.

High School Officials
Decide Tuesday Too
Early for Vital
Playoff Tilt

The playoff game for second round honors in the DUSO Basketball League will not be played Tuesday night, G. Warren Kias announced this morning. In all probability the scheduled tilt between Kingston and Middletown will be played in Goshen next Friday night, providing the Goshen court is available.

"I talked with the Middletown officials over the week-end and they agreed with me that Tuesday would be too early for such an important game," Coach Kias declared, "and we think that we'll be able to get the Goshen gym for Friday night. If not, we'll play Thursday night."

Kingston entered the playoff by downing Liberty last week, 49-39 and Middletown ousted Newburgh 34 to 28 to gain a two-way tie with the Maroon and White cagers.

Chicago Club Is Loose
as Proverbial Goose
in Training Camp
This Season

Pasadena, Calif., March 4 (AP)—If relaxation is the key to success, the Chicago White Sox could ease themselves into one of the American League's top spots this year.

Taking the cue from their manager, James Joseph (the Stogie) Dykes, the Chixos are loose as the proverbial goose. Dykes, in his 13th year of managing the Sox (notable longevity in a tough spot), has gone Hollywood and directs the team with a garish, flamboyant hand. A hand generally holding a cigar.

The Dykes' method, given a medium of talent to work on, could carry the Sox far beyond their sixth-place finish of 1945. There are evidences of ability among the 65-odd aspirants at the Sox's camp.

Ace Hurlers Back
Take pitching. Back from the service comes pre-war ace Johnny Rigney, southpaw Eddie Smith, everlastingly Ted Lyons and a half-dozen good young prospects. Add these to holdovers Thornton Lee, Orval Grove, Joe Haynes, Bill Dietrich and Ed Lopat, and there's the makings of a formidable staff.

Young Lefty Frank Pappas may come along to give the Sox the best postside pitching in the league—with Smith, Lee and Lopat. Newcomers who have flashed stuff include right handers Al Epperly and Tony Kiskura.

Veteran Mike Tresh, a late signer, rates first behind the bat, but may face a fight from Tom Jordan, on the voluntary retired list last year. George Dickey and Vince Castano lead for the third post.

Afield, there should be added fitness—and power, an item sorely lacked by the Sox in recent years.

Chet Hajduk, an Army slugger, appears set for either first or second base. If it's first, Dario Lodigiani may play second. If Hajduk goes to second, Hal Trosky, essaying another comeback, will be on first.

Interesting Possibilities
Two other ex-servicemen, durable Luke Appling and Bob Kennedy, figure to take over shortstop and third base. Cass Michaels and ex-Washington Senator Fred Vaughn are battling for utility posts.

An all-service outfield comprising Ralph Hodgin, Thurman Tucker and Taft Wright looks like a solid set, although Wally Moses and Ori Hockett won't give up their posts without a scrap. Tucker is one of the greatest flycatchers in recent league history.

The White Sox have interesting possibilities. They may be a real contender if they can catch some of the hitting magic old Red Hornsby will try to impart, starting today.

But win or lose—with Dykes running the show—the Sox will be worth watching.

Scheffel Tallies

Submerge Trinity

Bob Scheffel, high-scoring forward of the Redeemer basketball team, made his points count in a Church League clash last week as his teammates slammed out a 60 to 33 victory over the Fair Street Reformed club. Earlier in the week Scheffel amassed a total of 30 markers but they went by the winds as the Redeemer club lost.

In that 60-33 decision, Scheffel assaulted the wicket for 32 counters.

In the other Church League contest, the Agudas Achim cagers battered out a 54 to 30 win over Trinity with Spensad showing the way with his 28 points. Fe-losers.

CHARLIE TIANO

Two 14-carat sparklers dazzled the Kingston bowling firmament last week. Both are established names with whom high scoring is now an old story.

Charlie Grunewald, who has been wondering when, if and where he'd ever get 700, hit the jackpot of his dreams Thursday night, with a rousing 700 "on-the-nose" triple in the Central Major.

Rose Schatzel, soaring above a 185-average, smashed a 625 series with solos of 205-233-187. The impression exists quite definitely that Mrs. Schatzel ranks among the premier female keggers of the nation.

If you are willing to overlook the W.P.A. aspects of the handicapped-system, mention should be made of Grunewald Bakers' 1117 and 3102 in the Central Major wheel.

Ten Schools Are

New York, March 4 (AP)—Basketball turned to the post-season tournaments today after crowning all but two of the conference champions. Bids already have been extended to many of the top quintets for appearances in the National Invitational and N.C.A.A. championships.

Ten schools have accepted invitations, six to the invitational tournament at Madison Square Garden starting March 14, three to the Eastern N.C.A.A., also at the Garden starting March 21, and one to the Western N.C.A.A. of Kansas City March 22.

Kentucky, Muhlenberg, St. John's of Brooklyn, Bowling Green, West Virginia and Syracuse have accepted bids to the invitational with two teams still to be named. It was expected that Arizona, Border Conference Champions, will become the seventh entry with the other choice probably coming from the south. For some unexplained reason, De Paul, last year's Invitational champions, has been by-passed despite this season's 17-5 record against tough competition.

New York University's once-beaten aggregation, generally rated the top team in the nation,

Grunewald and Robinson

With the chips down and staring them smack in the face, the Van Kleeck keggers came through in the clutch Saturday night at the Central Recreation alleys when they rallied to pull two games out of the fire. The double win over Jones Dairy enabled the garage club to post a three game lead over the Newburgh Finnegan's.

The Jones club started off strong Saturday night by taking the opening game, 672-843, with Ad Jones and George Flemings rocketed 217 and 206 singles. A powerhouse attack in the midway contest, however, tied it up when Van Kleecks plastered a rousing 1083, just seven pins under the Ad Jones and George Flemings record. Charlie Grunewald paced the barrage in this one with his 250 while George Robinson came on with 245. Fred Rice smashed 213 and Gil Sampson had himself a 204. Jones didn't give up easily, however, as the dairymen registered a 1005 game with Randy Kelder and Flemings high with 222 and 213.

Three Strike Out

In the final game, and that's the one which had the fans yelling their heads off, Van Kleecks just managed to skunk through with a light victory. Going into the final frame Quick, Grunewald and Robinson struck out to decide the issue. Quick had the big game in this encounter with his 231. Ad Jones rattled off a 218 for his keggers.

Grunewald and Robinson were the big guns for Van Kleecks all night with their hefty triples of 644 and 643. Jones and Flemings bashed out 606 and 605 for the losers.

Saturday's double victory pushed the Van Kleeck club to a full three game lead over the Finnegan's with just nine games left to play in the Hudson Valley League. Newburgh, over the week-end, copied three tilts from Napanoch.

In another Hudson Valley League meeting the Kingston Trailways copied two from Liberty with Larry Weishaupt and Johnny "Red" Sangi showing the way with powerful 663 and 624 triples. Weishaupt also carried away high single honors of the match with his exploding 269 in his third game. Brundage had a 602 three-timer for Liberty.

Guards said these orders came from the Headquarters Command.

Hold Negro Janitor For Tryst Slaying

Indianapolis, March 4 (P)—Capt. Robert A. O'Neal of the Indiana State Police said today Joseph L. Woolridge, 29-year-old Negro janitor, had made a signed statement in which he confessed the slaying of Russell Koontz and Mrs. Phyllis Coleman in an abandoned stone mill near Bloomington, Ind.

Captain O'Neal said Woolridge made the statement in the presence of several State Police officers. Koontz, 43, was a Bloomington business man and a former Sunday school superintendent. Mrs. Coleman worked in a Bloomington creamery office and sang in the choir of the church where Koontz was superintendent.

Captain O'Neal said Woolridge told of being on a ground hog hunt last Friday and of finding Koontz and Mrs. Coleman in the stone mill.

Well, Ladies, Here Is Your Dream Nominee

Springfield, O., March 4 (P)—Nylon hose will rain on Cleveland "within a few days," promises Albert Edward Payne, Springfield industrialist, seeking the Republican nomination for Ohio governor in the May primary.

In a recent publicity stunt there, Payne dropped 150 pocketbooks, each containing a dollar bill and a note asking the finder to return the money "to prove my point that people are honest."

Reporting 80 per cent recovery, Payne said the forthcoming nylon shower from an airplane would be "a token of appreciation of the honesty of Cleveland citizens."

fact-finding board in the negotiations.

Sadly Deadlocked
U. S. Conciliator Peter J. Manno said the negotiations were "sadly deadlocked." He said he would report the situation to his superiors in Washington and that "the next move is up to them."

Dring issued a statement saying the wage increase offered by the company, plus boosts already granted long lines workers in New York city, would mean "an addition of $6,000,000 a year to the long lines payroll."

Earlier, Henry Mayer, chief counsel for the union, claimed A. T. & T. net earnings above taxes for 1944 were $81,000,000.

During the final conference, which began at 1 p. m. (E.S.T.) yesterday, the company raised its offer from 14.3 cents to 15 cents, spokesmen for both groups said.

"Peanut Offer"
Moran, however, termed this "a peanut offer" and said it was "not worth our coming over here." He said he was "very much disgusted."

The Long Lines Union is a key group in the National Federation of Telephone Workers, 17 of whose 50 affiliated unions have voted to strike Thursday. A settlement of its dispute had been expected possibly to bring about agreements in the others' cases.

What the action of the other affiliates would be in the event of a national telephone tieup was not known. In a brief strike by long lines workers several weeks ago, members of some non-striking groups refused to cross picket lines.

The Telephone Company said it hoped to maintain some services such as to radio stations, press associations and newspapers, if the walkout takes place.

gin his campaign as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor in the forthcoming primary as soon as he could get into civilian clothes. He said that he would make his first major address at 6 p. m. on March 13 over radio station WOR.

Mr. Hoffman is opposed for the Republican gubernatorial nomination by Alfred E. Driscoll, State Alcohol Beverage Control Commissioner. Mr. Driscoll has the backing of Governor Walter E. Edge and a majority of the Republican county leaders.

While G.M. and the U.A.W.-C.I.O. carried their long struggle to a new climax, 169 Detroit automotive tool and die shops granted the union a 20-cent hourly wage increase for 8,000 employees. It becomes effective today if approved by the Automotive Tool and Die Manufacturers Association.

The U.A.W.-C.I.O. had asked a 20-cent boost retroactive to January 1 and voted six to one to strike for its demands.

down with red tape, instead of producing more houses.

In a barrage of Sunday statements—some angry and some pleading—the five top generals of the economic front sought to change the mind of Congress on homes for veterans and funds for the wage-price program.

Good News for Gougers
Bowles led off by declaring that actions of Congress last week "represented good news only for the black marketeers, for the gougers and the speculators, for all the selfish pressure groups who think that somehow, in an inflationary rough-and-tumble, they can get theirs and get out."

The newly designated stabilizer noted bitterly that the House Appropriations Committee had recommended withdrawal of $2,250,000 in operating funds of the wage stabilization board and that the Senate had cut in half House-approved allotment to permit the O.P.A. and the Civilian Production Administration to expand their activities.

Imploping Congress to resist a "cellar door attack" which he said "is inspired by a few old enemies of price and rent control," Bowles declared that the alternative is inflation and failure to build houses for veterans.

Vets Will Suffer, He Says
Housing Chief Wilson W. Wyatt, lashing out at what he described as "one of the biggest lobbies that has ever operated against essential legislation," declared that if Congress defeats the Housing Bill, the goal of 2,700,000 homes for veterans in two years cannot be reached.

The Bowles and Wyatt statements were supplemented by others from O.P.A. Administrator Paul Porter, Civilian Production Chief John D. Small, and Chairman W. Willard Wirtz of the Wage Stabilization Board.

Senator Taft (R., Ohio) told a reporter: "The votes in Congress are in effect votes of no confidence in Chester Bowles, and indicate disapproval of his methods, manners and his theories. If he wants Congress to give unlimited support to a program to prevent inflation, I suggest that Mr. Bowles resign and let the President appoint a less egotistical and opinionated administrator."

and were towed to the Doc Smith Garage.

According to the police report Locke was driving the truck south on Broadway, and when in front of 495 Broadway, it was in collision with the auto driven by Koubout, who was going north on Broadway.

Bitten by Dog
Mrs. Grace Long of 503 Washington avenue reported to the sheriff's office Sunday afternoon that Raymond Long, 15, had been bitten on the right side by a police dog. The boy was at the Kingston Airport at the time the dog attacked him. The matter was referred to Justice Percy Bush of the town of Ulster.

One of the city scrapers was busy today removing the icy ruts from John street between Fair and Wall streets. Deep ruts, had caused numerous vehicles to become mired.

Legion Favors Bill For Ferry Service Here

Kingston Post, 150, American Legion, at its February meeting adopted a resolution urging the passage in the State Legislature of the Wicks-Hatfield Bill, which provided for the construction of a bridge between Kingston and Rhinecliff, with interim ferry service.

The resolution declared that the construction of the New York to Buffalo Thruway, and the extension of the Taconic Parkway will make it necessary that a connecting link across the Hudson river at the important traffic junction of Kingston, be provided to afford access to the Catskill mountains from the east shore of the river, the southern tier and the states of New Jersey and Pennsylvania, to serve the best interests of the people of the state.

A copy of the resolution was forwarded to the Governor and the Senate and Assembly.

Instructed by Moscow
Ottawa, March 4 (P)—The Canadian government in a 3,000-word statement today declared the Russian military attaché here had been instructed by Moscow to obtain data on atomic bomb material, radar, American electronic shells and the movements of American troops and that some data had been secured from Canadian and British citizens violating official secrets legislation.

Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King made public the report, which in part was a response to a recent Moscow statement that information obtained in Canada was being used to divert attention from British "failures" in the United Nations Security Council.

Should Make It a Gift
Palm Beach, Fla., March 4 (P)—The United States should give the proposed $4,000,000,000 assistance to Great Britain as an outright gift rather than as a loan, lest the British "be driven into the arms of Communism," Joseph P. Kennedy, former U. S. ambassador to Britain said today at his winter home here.

The votes in Congress are in effect votes of no confidence in Chester Bowles, and indicate disapproval of his methods, manners and his theories. If he wants Congress to give unlimited support to a program to prevent inflation, I suggest that Mr. Bowles resign and let the President appoint a less egotistical and opinionated administrator."

Republican Nominees Are Reduced to Two

Washington, March 4 (P)—House Republicans have narrowed their list of men under consideration for National Chairman to two to their colleagues—one from Ohio and one from Tennessee.

A successor to Herbert Brownell, Jr., is to be selected April 1. Party lawmakers figure that with Congressional elections coming this fall the next Republican chairman should have a Congressional background.

Reps. Clarence J. Brown of Ohio, in his fourth term, with a background of having been a country newspaper publisher, Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of State of Ohio, and B. Carroll Reece of Tennessee, a lawyer-banker-teacher-legislator and veteran of the first World War now in his 13th term, are the two under consideration.

Yokohama, March 4 (P)—An Eighth Army survey indicated today that only 70 enlisted men of the first three grades are interested in bringing their dependents to Japan, as compared with 700 officers in the occupation forces. In the Navy, the figures were 738 enlisted men and 249 officers who want their families here.

Boston, March 4 (P)—Former Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing Prison was reported by state officials to be en route to Boston today to confer with Governor Tobin on a study of prison and parole conditions in Massachusetts institutions.

Police were unable to determine immediately from which floor the man jumped or fell. The observation tower was not open at the time.

4-H CLUB NEWS

A special meeting of the Lakeview 4-H Club was held on February 28 to settle several questions arising from the selection of a vocation.

In this connection were mentioned the use of aptitude tests and intelligence, along with seemingly minor physical handicaps. Stress was placed on the uselessness of "blind alley" jobs.

Present at the meeting were Garford Whitman, Robert Spindler, John Kern, Edward Donnelly and Earl Mack.

Faye Emerson Gives Up Her Career in Movies

Hollywood, March 4 (AP)—Movie actress Faye Emerson has given up her professional career to devote all her time to being Mrs. Winston Roosevelt.

She came to Hollywood late last week from Hyde Park, N. Y., where she is living in the celebrated her contract with Warner Brothers, and returned east to be with her husband, the second son of the late President.

Warners said Mrs. Roosevelt felt that the best way to make a success of her marriage was to quit the movies, since they would keep her away from Hyde Park, where her husband is living in the ancestral home.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

A Sour Burglary
Tulsa, Okla., March 4 (AP)—A burglary of a food market here had a sour ending.

Police were called to the market in answer to an alarm. They found the intruder had opened a skylight, stepped onto a false ceiling which gave way and he dropped into a 60-gallon barrel of dill pickles.

Honesty
Twin Falls, Ida., March 4 (AP)—"Here's the money for the haircut and here's $3 to cover the bun check I gave you."

Somewhat taken back, barber Charles Russell told the customer he didn't remember cashing a bad check.

"It was about ten years ago," said the customer, "You had a shop over on Main street then."

Russell remembered, smiled and accepted the money.

Ready to Travel
Rome, N. Y., March 4 (AP)—People who deposit out-of-town bus tokens in fare boxes here are contributing to the collection of Henry G. Lavanway, manager of the Rome City Bus Line, Inc.

His collection includes tokens from Washington, D. C., San Antonio, Tex., Honolulu, Indianapolis, Seattle, Norfolk, Va., Tulsa, Okla., and Canada.

A Car for Cares
Centralia, Ill., March 4 (AP)—Getting a new car for the Cares cost Mrs. Oliver Carr a night long vigil.

An automobile agency advertised it would accept orders for new models—first come first served.

Bringing a chair and blankets for protection against near-freezing weather, Mrs. Carr took up her post outside the auto sales room at 7 p. m., beating ex-Marine Donald Kelly by 11 minutes. Soon more company arrived and by 5 a. m., 15 persons were waiting.

The Carrs' new car will be delivered later this month, the agency said.

Buses for Houses
Chicago, March 4 (AP)—Three hundred outmoded street cars have been released by the Chicago Surface Lines for sale as housing.

Costing $300 each, they will have electric heating units, but the new owners must be people who are willing to settle down. The wheels will be taken off.

Employment Increase Recorded in January

Albany, N. Y., March 4 (AP)—January employment in the state's building industry was 43 per cent higher than in the same month in 1945, the State Labor Department reported today.

The January seasonal employment decline in the industry was 2 per cent, smallest ever recorded by the department, Industrial Commissioner Edward Corsi said.

Payrolls were 4 per cent above those of December, 1945. Man-hours increased 1 per cent. Average weekly earnings were $55.50, a gain of $3.12 over the previous month.

Decreases in employment were noted in Albany, Binghamton, Buffalo and Utica. New York city, Rochester and Syracuse reported a rise in the number of workers.

Missouri Awaits Churchill Speech

Ex-Prime Minister Slated for Momentous Talk on World Affairs

Fulton, Mo., March 4 (AP)—Fulton took on life and color today as the last of the red, white and blue bunting went up in honor of Winston Churchill and President Truman.

Everything was set for their arrival early tomorrow afternoon. The Westminster campus was shining. The hot dog stands were up. Special communications facilities were ready to transmit up to 1,500 words a minute by wire.

Dr. Francis McCluer, Westminster president, estimated about 4,000 visitors already had arrived. How many will crowd in this little town of 8,200 tomorrow, no one can say.

For the 225 students at Westminster today was a holiday. They will have special seats in the college gymnasium tomorrow to hear the former British prime minister discuss world problems.

Some of the first comers behaved like typical souvenir hunters. They pilfered two telephones and a microphone from the gymnasium where Churchill will speak.

Downtown, where 500 state guardsmen, policemen borrowed from nearby towns and a troop of highway patrolmen will direct traffic, a battle-type loud-speaker has been erected on the courthouse.

Three More Japs Go On Trial for Atrocities

Yokohama, March 4 (AP)—Three Japanese go on trial tomorrow on charges of committing and permitting atrocities at a branch of the Omine Prison Camp on Onshu Island. It will be the second common trial of suspected war criminals in Nippon.

They are Nobuo Kanayama and former Camp Commandants Osuyoshi Saki and Kiyochi Mori.

The trio will be defended by Capt. William T. Martin, Jr., 372 West Mount Airy avenue, Philadelphia. Lt. Andrew R. Stevenson of White Plains, N. Y., will head the prosecution.

France, Britain to Take Troops Out of Syria

Paris, March 4 (AP)—The French foreign office announced today that France and Britain have agreed to withdraw their troops from Syria by April 30.

Joint withdrawal of the troops will begin March 11, the announcement said.

It added that a French-British military commission which negotiated the agreement is now studying plans for the evacuation of Lebanon.

Kingston Hospital Volunteer Service

Appreciation Is Expressed for Volunteer Workers

Through the war years, when every person was moved to do as much as possible to achieve victory, the hospitals benefited by the volunteer work done by many individuals and groups who, in this way, helped to fill the gap caused by the nurses leaving for military service.

Kingston women were no exception. They gave much time to the hospitals as well as to other emergency activities.

In the Kingston Hospital two groups carry on their volunteer work throughout the year—the Louise Wilkinson Shufeldt Memorial Good Cheer Committee of the Hospital Auxiliary and the Junior League Book and Magazine Service.

These volunteers do an effective job in a faithful and unobtrusive manner.

At present several members of the Tri-Hi girls Y.W.C.A. are giving their time after school hours, wherever needed.

Other groups who have given service include the Enal Brith Girls, the Red Cross canteen aides and the Nurses Aides.

Special mention should be given to the following Nurses Aides: Mrs. Adrian Kaplan with 620 hours of service, Mrs. Harry Gold with 409 hours, Mrs. Robert Huddler, 394 hours, Mrs. H. C. Scarpatti, 375 hours and Mrs. S. L. Razez, 335 hours—while many others also have the satisfaction of having given hundreds of hours in self-sacrificing service. They are among the unsung heroines of the war.

Three members of the Hospital Auxiliary reported regularly for duty, over an extended period, the Messamess H. L. Bibby, Harold Loughran and C. E. Wonderly.

This is a tremendous contribution when seen in the aggregate, and the hospital appreciates deeply the assistance given by each individual, and that which is still being given. The need for assistance is yet present.

If there are those who could spare some time for hospital work, it is urged that an effort be made to do it now.

Vets Purchasing 75% of Surplus Motor Vehicles

That veterans of World War 2 are receiving a high percentage of surplus motor vehicles being sold throughout the nation by War Assets Corporation, in some cases as high as 75 per cent of the total vehicles sold, is indicated in the latest reports of sales, according to an announcement today by Col. Frank F. Seymour, Associate Regional Director in this area.

During the first two weeks of 1946, from January 1st to 15th inclusive, veterans bought 1,341 trucks as against dealers' purchases of 2,212, despite the fact that a large proportion of trucks sold were types requiring alterations for peace-time hauling. During the same period, U. S. Government agencies bought 477 and State and Local Governments 118 of the surplus vehicles.

Col. Seymour pointed out that, under the law, the U. S. Government has top priority and State and Local Governments second claim on all surplus vehicles. Third, priority goes to the veterans.

Don't Let Soap Shortages Get Worse

Keep saving used fats!

KNOW WHY SOAP'S SO SCARCE? It's because our country is so short of fats needed to make the soaps you want (and to make other peacetime goods, too). Yes! Even though food fats are more plentiful now, our supply of industrial fats is still critically low. But you can help put more soap back in the stores sooner . . . by saving used fats! Keep turning them in just as you did during the war. (You'll get 4¢ for every pound.)

IT'S SUCH A GOOD HABIT! I'LL KEEP ON JUST AS LONG AS UNCLE SAM WANTS!

Better Bowling

By Billy Sixty

FIT ALL HANDS: Boring bowling balls to meet the measurement or condition of all hands has become an art today. No longer need any person sit on the sidelines or avoid the sport because he "can't get a ball that fits."

Baseball players with fingers buckled and bent used to find it particularly difficult to bowl with the old-fashioned, standard-bore ball. Many simply had to forget about bowling entirely because they just couldn't hold the ball long enough to get it to the foul line.

The artistry of drilling holes, a delicate job for skilled mechanic at first, and now done by machinery, has reached the high point of proficiency that provides CURVED HOLES (see illustration) as the latest accomplishment.

It may be just the thing for misshapen fingers, and it could work well for women with thin, short fingers and weak hands.

A famous movie actor who lost part of his thumb refused to give up his favorite game because of the injury. He hit upon the idea of using "slotted" fingerholes. In the national individual match tournament two years ago a doctor used a "five fingered" ball (see illustration) in order to avoid wear on the hand that might interfere with his delicate work.

The fact that he bowled well enough to qualify for the championship proves his skill, and

'Y' Cagers Trim Margaretville by 52-46 on Saturday

Coach Lou Schafer's Y.M.C.A. basketball teams won a double-header over the week-end when the varsity five fought to a 42-46 victory over the Margaretville American Legion and the juniors did it in a walk against Arkville, 54-42.

Buddy Smith, Jack Kelse and Al Thomas sparked the varsity quintet in their triumph. Smith found the hoop for 17 markers while Kelse and Thomas dumped in 14 and 11 respectively. Maxson had 11 for the losers.

The "Y" varsity quintet travels to Roxbury tonight for another tough engagement.

Dougherty, McElrath and Perry were high for the javees with Dougherty leading the pack with 21 points. The javees took a 38-22 lead at halftime.

proves, as well, that any hand can be fitted.

The selection of a ball is entirely up to the individual. The ruling factor is this: Get a ball that fits COMFORTABLY, and get an expert's advice and help in being measured for your ball.

Maroons-Middies May Meet Friday Night in Goshen

High School Officials Decide Tuesday Too Early for Vital Playoff Tilt

The playoff game for second round honors in the DUSO Basketball League will not be played Tuesday night, G. Warren Kias announced this morning. In all probability the scheduled tilt between Kingston and Middletown will be played in Goshen next Friday night, providing the Goshen court is available.

"I talked with the Middletown officials over the week-end and they agreed with me that Tuesday would be too early for such an important game," Coach Kias declared, "and we think that we'll be able to get the Goshen gym for Friday night. If not, we'll play Thursday night."

Kingston entered the playoff by downing Liberty last week, 49-39, and Middletown ousted Newburgh 34 to 28 to gain a two-way tie with the Maroon and White eagles.

Chicago Club Is Loose as Proverbial Goose in Training Camp This Season

Pasadena, Calif., March 4 (AP)—If relaxation is the key to success, the Chicago White Sox could ease themselves into one of the American League's top slots this year.

Taking the cue from their manager, James Joseph (the Stogie) Dykes, the Chicks are loose as the proverbial goose. Dykes, in his 13th year of managing the Sox (notable longevity in a tough spot), has gone Hollywood and directed the team with a garish, flamboyant hand. A band generally holds a cigar.

The Dykes' method, given a modicum of talent to work on, could carry the Sox far beyond their sixth-place finish of 1945. There are evidences of ability among the 65-odd aspirants at the Sox's camp.

Ace Hurlers Back
Take pitching. Back from the service comes pre-war ace Johnny Rigney, southpaw Eddie Smith, everlasting Ted Lyons and a half-dozen good young prospects. Add these to holdovers Thornton Lee, Orval Grove, Joe Haynes, Bill Dietrich and Ed Lopat, and there's the makings of a formidable staff.

Young Lefty Frank Pappas may come along to give the Sox the best outside pitching in the league—with Smith, Lee and Lopat. Newcomers who have flashed stints include right handers Al Epperly and Tony Klisura.

Veteran Mike Tresh, a late signer, rates first behind the bat, but may face a fight from Tom Jordan, on the voluntary retired list last year. George Dickey and Vince Castano lead for the third post.

Afield, there should be added finesse—and power, an item sorely lacked by the Sox in recent years.

Chet Hajduk, an Army slugger, appears set for either first or second base. If it's first, Dario Lodigiani may play second. If Hajduk goes to second, Hal Trosky, essaying another comeback, will be on first.

Two other ex-servicemen, durable Luke Appling and Bob Kennedy, figure to take over short-stop and third base. Sam Michaels and ex-Washington Senator Fred Vaughn are battling for utility posts.

All-service outfield comprising Ralph Hodgin, Thurman Tucker and Taft Wright looks like a solid set, although Wally Moses and Oris Hockett won't give up their posts without a scrap. Tucker is one of the greatest flycatchers in recent league history.

The White Sox have interesting possibilities. They may be a real contender if they can catch some of the hitting magic old Rog Hornsby will try to impart, starting today.

But win or lose—with Dykes running the show—the Sox will be worth watching.

Scheffel Tallies 32 as Redeemers Submerge Trinity

Bob Scheffel, high-scoring forward of the Redeemer basketball team, made his points count in a Church League clash last week as his teammates slammed out a 60 to 33 victory over the Fair Street Reformed club. Earlier in the week Scheffel amassed a total of 30 markers but they went by the winds as the Redeemer club lost.

In that 60-33 decision, Scheffel assaulted the wicket for 32 counters.

In the other Church League contest, the Agudas Achim cagers battered out a 54 to 30 win over Trinity with Spiesman showing the way with his 28 points. Petruski flipped in nine for the losers.

In The Pocket

CHARLIE TIANO

Two 14-carat sparklers dazzled the Kingston bowling firmament last week. Both are established names with whom high scoring is now an old story.

Charlie Grunwald, who has been wondering when, if and where he'd ever get 700, hit the jackpot of his dreams Thursday night, with a rousing 700 "on-the-nose" triple in the Central Major. He bashed the uprights for scores of 254-203-243.

Rose Schatzel, soaring above a 185-average, smashed a 625 series with solos of 205-233-187. The impression exists quite definitely that Mrs. Schatzel ranks among the premier female keglers of the nation.

If you are willing to overlook the W.P.A. aspects of the handicapped-system, mention should be made of Grunwald Bakers' 1117 and 3102 in the Central Major wheel.

Beverly Markle, who has been topping hefty totals with alarming consistency in recent weeks, shared the spotlight with Mrs. Schatzel, with a pair of 561s. Etta Ginder crashed the honor roll twice with 503 and 512. The omnipresent Marge Jansen rolled 511, Evelyn Dolson 507, Evelyn "371" Moore, 509, and Evelyn Francis 507. A lot of Evelyns, don't you think?

LES HOTALING STARS; SAM HAYES POSTS 258

It was a rousing, high-scoring week in which you had to post at least 235 in the singles and 613 in triples to crash the honor roll. The pinerettes compiled seven singletons of 200 or more.

"Red" Sangi cracked 640 to emerge from a lengthy slump, while Les Hotaling kicked up a 656 in the Hercules loop. Youthful Eddie Sohn crashed the top bracket with 636.

Harold Broskie's 268 set the pace for a quartet of illustrious solo efforts. Sam Hayes, of Canfields, was runner-up with 258, while Charlie Grunwald and Ray Roux powdered 254.

Among other high scoring emblems were 507 triples by Evelyn Dolson and Evelyn Francis, E. Moore's 509 and Etta Ginder's 503.

Garagemen Slam Rousing 1083 Solo At Central Alleys

Grunwald and Robinson Face Victors With 644 and 643; Trailways Cop Two

With the chips down and staring them smack in the face, the Van Kleeck keggers came through in the clutch Saturday night at the Central Recreation alleys when they rallied to pull two games out of the fire. The double win over Jones Dairy enabled the garage club to post a three game lead over the Newburgh Finnegan's.

The Jones club started off strong Saturday night by taking the opening game, 972-843 when Ad Jones and George Flemings rocketed 217 and 206 singles. A powerhouse attack in the midway contest, however, tied it up when Van Kleecks plastered a rousing 1083, just seven pins under the Hudson Valley League record. Charlie Grunwald paced the barrage in this one with his 250 while George Robinson came on with 245. Fred Rice smashed 213 and Gil Sampson had himself a 204. Jones didn't give up easily, however, as the dairymen registered a 1005 game with Randy Kelder and Flemings high with 222 and 213.

Three Strike Out
In the final game, and that's the one which had the fans yelling their heads off, Van Kleecks just managed to skim through with a light victory. Going into the final frame Quick, Grunwald and Robinson struck out to decide the issue. Quick had the big game in this encounter with his 231. Ad Jones rattled off a 218 for his keggers.

Grunwald and Robinson were the big guns for Van Kleeck's all night, with their hefty triples of 644 and 643. Jones and Flemings bashed out 606 and 605 for the losers.

Saturday's double victory pushed the Van Kleeck club to a full three game lead over the Finnegan's with just nine games left to play in the Hudson Valley League. Newburgh, over the week-end, copied three tilts from Nanuet.

In another Hudson Valley League meeting the Kingston Trailways copied two from Liberty with Larry Weishaup and Johnny "Red" Sangi showing the way with powerful 663 and 624 triples. Weishaup also carried away high single honors of the match with his exploding 269 in his third game. Brundage had a 602 three-timer for Liberty.

eral breakdown of army discipline in Europe.

Officers and civilians living in the Compound, a barbed wire enclosed area of several square miles which was formerly a part of the I. G. Farben Industrie, are permitted to take girls into the Compound anytime except between 10:30 p. m. and 8:30 a. m.

On week-ends, girls are permitted to stay in the Compound over Sunday, but must leave early Monday morning. An officer must sign his guest in and out. Guards said these orders came from the Headquarters Command.

The register showed that guests were signed in Saturday night by 120 civilians and officers, including ranks as high as lieutenant colonel.

Spring-Like Weather Stays Over Week-end

Spring-like weather which has prevailed in Kingston since the first of the month continued today with the official city thermometer at the city hall recording 41 degrees at 8:30 o'clock.

Sunday was an ideal spring day with the official thermometer recording a high of 45 degrees at 2 o'clock that afternoon, and a low of 31 degrees at midnight.

Although rain and fog prevailed Saturday, temperatures were mild. A high of 42 degrees was recorded with a low of 32 degrees.

At 4 o'clock this morning the thermometer was registering 25 degrees, and it gradually grew much warmer as the sun rose.

Hold Negro Janitor For Tryst Slaying

Indianapolis, March 4 (AP)—Capt. Robert A. O'Neal of the Indiana State Police said today Joseph L. Woolridge, 29-year-old Negro janitor, had made a signed statement in which he confessed the slayings of Russell Koonitz and Mrs. Phyllis Coleman in an abandoned stone mill near Bloomington, Ind.

Captain O'Neal said Woolridge made the statement in the presence of several State Police officers.

Koonitz, 43, was a Bloomington business man and a former Sunday school superintendent. Mrs. Coleman worked in a Bloomington creamery office and sang in the choir of the church where Koonitz was superintendent.

Captain O'Neal said Woolridge told of being on a ground hog hunt last Friday and of finding Koonitz and Mrs. Coleman in the stone mill.

Egg Shortage

Harrisburg, Pa., March 4 (AP)—Miles Hirst, Pennsylvania State Secretary of Agriculture, predicts there will be a scarcity of milk and eggs in Pennsylvania this summer. He said farmers are going to have to ration their poultry flocks because of the shortage of poultry feed, but added in a statement that "eggs will be plentiful in the spring, but then will drop off" until the chicks hatched out this spring begin laying.

Well, Ladies, Here Is Your Dream Nominee

Springfield, O., March 4 (AP)—Nylon hose will rain on Cleveland "within a few days," promises Albert Edward Payne, Springfield industrialist, seeking the Republican nomination for Ohio governor in the May primary.

In a recent publicity stunt there, Payne dropped 150 pocketbooks, each containing a dollar bill and a note asking the finder to return the money "to prove my point that people are honest."

Reporting 80 per cent recovery, Payne said the forthcoming nylon shower from an airplane would be "a token of appreciation of the honesty of Cleveland citizens."

Where will he get the hose? "People planning for governor will be very surprised to know how I can accomplish difficult tasks," he replied, without elaboration.

fact-finding board in the negotiations.

Sadly Deadlocked

U. S. Conciliator Peter J. Manno said the negotiations were "sadly deadlocked." He said he would report the situation to his superiors in Washington and that "the next move is up to them."

Dring issued a statement saying the wage increase offered by the company, plus boosts already granted long lines workers in New York city, would mean "an addition of $4,000,000 a year to the long lines payroll."

Earlier, Henry Mayer, chief counsel for the union, claimed A. T. & T. net earnings above taxes for 1944 were $91,000,000.

During the final conference, which began at 1 p. m. (E.S.T.) yesterday, the company raised its offer from 14.3 cents to 15 cents, spokesmen for both groups said.

"Peanut Offer"

Moran, however, termed this "a peanut offer" and said it was "not worth our coming over here." He said he was "very much disgusted."

The Long Lines Union is a key group in the National Federation of Telephone Workers, 17 of whose 50 affiliated unions have voted to strike Thursday. A settlement of its dispute had been expected possibly to bring about agreements in the others cases.

What the action of the other affiliates would be in the event of a national telephone tie-up was not known. In a brief strike by long lines workers several weeks ago, members of some non-striking groups refused to cross picket lines.

The Telephone Company said it hoped to maintain some services, such as radio stations, press associations and newspapers, if the walkout takes place.

gin his campaign as a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination for the forthcoming primary as soon as he could get into civilian clothes. He said that he would make his first major address at 6 p. m. on March 13 over radio station WOR.

Mr. Hoffman is opposed for the Republican gubernatorial nomination by Alfred E. Driscoll State Alcohol Beverage Control Commissioner. Mr. Driscoll has the backing of Governor Walter E. Edge and a majority of the Republican county leaders.

boost, the average wage in G.M. plants will remain below the one paid by Ford and Chrysler.

While G.M. and the U.A.W.-C.I.O. carried their long struggle to a new climax, 160 Detroit automobile plant and die shops granted the union a 20 cent hourly wage increase for 8,000 employees. It becomes effective today if approved by the Automotive Tool and Die Manufacturers Association.

The U.A.W.-C.I.O. had asked a 20 cent boost retroactive to January 1 and voted six to one to strike for its demands.

down with red tape, instead of producing more houses.

In a barrage of Sunday statements—some angry and some pleading—the five top generals of the economic front sought to change the mind of Congress on homes for veterans and funds for the wage-price program.

Good News for Gougers

Bowles led off by declaring that actions of Congress last week "represented good news only for the black marketers, for the gougers and the speculators, for the selfish pressure groups who think that somehow, in an inflationary rough-and-tumble, they can get theirs and get out."

The newly designated stabilizer noted bitterly that the House Appropriations Committee had recommended withdrawal of $2,250,000 in operating funds of the wage stabilization board and that the board had cut in half House-approved allotments to permit the O.P.A. and the Civilian Production Administration to expand their activities.

Imploping Congress to resist a "cellar door attack" which he said "is inspired by a few old enemies of price and rent control," Bowles declared that the alternative is inflation and failure to build houses for veterans.

Vets Will Suffer, He Says

Trousing Chief Wilson W. Wyatt, lashing out at what he described as "one of the biggest lobbies that has even operated against essential legislation," declared that if Congress defeats the Housing Bill the goal of 2,700,000 homes for veterans in two years cannot be reached.

The Bowles and Wyatt statements were supplemented by reports from O.P.A. Administrator Paul Porter, Civilian Production Chief John D. Small, and Chairman W. Willard Wirtz of the Wage Stabilization Board.

Senator Taft (R., Ohio) told a reporter:

"The votes in Congress are in effect votes of no confidence in Chester Bowles, and indicate disapproval of his methods, manners and his theories. If he wants Congress to give unlimited support to a program to prevent inflation, I suggest that Mr. Bowles resign and let the President appoint a less egotistical and opinionated administrator."

and were towed to the Doc Smith Garage.

According to the police report Locke was driving the truck south on Broadway, and when in front of 495 Broadway, it was in collision with the auto driven by Kuhlout, who was going north on Broadway.

Bitten by Dog

Mrs. Grace Long of 503 Washington avenue reported to the sheriff's office Sunday afternoon that Raymond Long, 15, had been bitten on the right side by a police dog. The boy was at the Kingston Airport at the time the dog attacked him. The matter was referred to Justice Percy Bush of the town of Ulster.

Scrapers Busy

One of the city scrapers was busy today removing the icy ruts from John street between Fair and Wall streets. Deep ruts, had caused numerous vehicles to become mired.

Legion Favors Bill For Ferry Service Here

Kingston Post, 150, American Legion, at its February meeting adopted a resolution urging the passage in the State Legislature of the Wicks-Hatfield Bill, which provided for the construction of a bridge between Kingston and Rhinecliff, with interim ferry service.

The resolution declared that the construction of the New York to Buffalo Thruway, and the extension of the Taconic Parkway will make it necessary that a connecting link across the Hudson river at the important traffic junction of Kingston, be provided to afford access to the Catskill mountains from the east shore of the river, the southern tier and the states of New Jersey and Pennsylvania, to serve the best interests of the people of the state.

A copy of the resolution was forwarded to the Governor and the Senate and Assembly.

Instructed by Moscow

Ottawa, March 4 (AP)—The Canadian government in a 3,000-word statement today declared the Russian military attaché here had been instructed by Moscow to obtain data on atomic bomb material, radar, American electronic shells and the movements of American troops and that some data had been secured from Canadian and British citizens violating official secrets legislation.

Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King made public the report, which in part was a response to a recent Moscow statement that information obtained in Canada was insignificant and that King was attempting to divert attention from British "failures" in the United Nations Security Council.

Should Make It a Gift

Palm Beach, Fla., March 4 (AP)—The United States should give the proposed $4,000,000,000 assistance to Great Britain as an outright gift rather than as a loan, lest the British "be driven into the arms of Communism," Joseph P. Kennedy, former U. S. ambassador to Britain said today at his winter home here.

Republican Nominees Are Reduced to Two

Washington, March 4 (AP)—House Republicans have narrowed their list of men under consideration for National Chairman to two to their colleagues—one from Ohio and one from Tennessee.

A successor to Herbert Brownell, Jr., is to be selected April 1. Party lawmakers figure that with Congressional elections coming this fall the next Republican chairman should have a Congressional background.

Reps. Clarence J. Brown of Ohio, in his fourth term, with a background of having been a country newspaper publisher, Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of State of Ohio, and B. Carroll Reece of Tennessee, a lawyer-banker-teacher-legislator and veteran of the first World War now in his 13th term, are the two under consideration.

Easy to Figure

Yokohama, March 4 (AP)—An Eighth Army survey indicated today that only 70 enlisted men of the first three grades are interested in bringing their dependents to Japan, as compared with 700 officers in the occupation forces. In the Navy, the figures were 738 enlisted men and 249 officers who want their families here.

Lawes Heads Study

Boston, March 4 (AP)—Former Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing Prison was reported by state officials to be en route to Boston today to confer with Governor Tobin on a study of prison and parole conditions in Massachusetts institutions.

Y., plunged to his death today from an upper floor of the 102-story Empire State building, hitting a sixth floor setback. Police were unable to determine immediately from which floor the man jumped or fell. The observation tower was not open at the time.

Jesse Jones III

New York, March 4 (AP)—Jesse Jones, former secretary of commerce, has been hospitalized at Le Roy Sanitarium since last Tuesday as the result of an attack of influenza, his wife said today. He is "improving" and probably will be discharged in a few days, Mrs. Jones said.

Mannerheim to Quit

Stockholm, March 4 (AP)—Baron Mannerheim will resign today as President of Finland, the Associated Press correspondent in Helsinki said before a telephone conversation with Stockholm was cut by censorship.

Marlborough Couple Gets 15-Day Sentence

Bethie Mae Brounson, 30, and Isleanor Royal, 19, colored residents of Marlborough, were arrested Sunday by Corporal William Martin of the State Police on charges of disorderly conduct. Justice Ralph E. Clark sentenced them to 15 days each in the Ulster county jail.

Rendezvous With Death

Philadelphia, March 4 (AP)—The U.S.S. New York, famed battleship built in 1915, lifted anchor at the Philadelphia Naval Base today to sail to her Pacific rendezvous for the atomic bomb tests. Stripped of her armament, the New York will serve as a "guinea pig" with 97 other ships in the tests.

Gets Three Days

William Ohrenberg of New York city, was arrested Saturday night on Wall street, by the police who charged him with public intoxication. This morning in police court he was sentenced to the three days he had served in jail.
